

Industry Talk Series 2022

Industry Talk with

15 AUG
2022

12h00 – 13h00

Presenters

PROF PRATHABAN MOODLEY – Research Manager \ Specialist
Transmission & Distribution

Topic: The Evolving Electrical Power Generation Mix and Power Grid

BIO: Prof Prathaban Moodley currently holds the position of Research Manager \ Specialist Transmission & Distribution at the Eskom Research, Testing & Development (RT&D) business unit, he has over 20 years of power utility experience in various roles within Eskom. Prof Moodley is a registered professional engineer and holds the following degrees: Bachelors; Masters and PhD in electrical engineering from the University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg. Prof Moodley is an active member of various national and international industry bodies as well as academia. He is active at, inter alia, the International Energy Agency (IEA - ISGAN), Electric Power Research Institute (EPRI), Council for Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR); as well as a member of several university advisory boards.

NTSOAKI GATEBE – Senior Manager: Learning, Skills Development & Transformation

Topic: Eskom Skills Development Opportunities

BIO: Ntsoaki started her journey in Eskom as a Graduate in Training in July 2002 at Lethabo Power Station, covering the entire HR value Chain. She was appointed permanently as an HR Officer in December 2002 and moved through different HR positions where she gained good experience and knowledge. She was later appointed as HR Manager at Lethabo Power in January 2008 where she managed the broader portfolio of people management strategies in alignment with HR Division mandateIn 2013, she was appointed as Middle Manager HR Operations managing HR within 7 Power Station (Lethabo, Matla, Kriel, Matimba, Tutuka, Majuba, Duvha)She was recently appointed in her new role as Senior Manager in the Skills and Talent CoE and is a proud mother of two boys.

ZANELE MHAULE (Alumnus)– Senior Engineer

Topic: Career journey and experience since graduating from UKZN

BIO: Zanele holds a BSc in Electrical Engineering and MBA from the University of KwaZulu Natal. She is currently employed as a Senior Engineer for Network Engineering and Designs at Eskom Distribution. She is registered with ECSA as a professional Engineer. She has worked for Eskom for fourteen years in various departments specializing in the formulation of medium and long-term development plans for the Distribution Grid.

Click here ➤

TO REGISTER